

652
13

2012

14-00000

JOINT STATE/USIA MESSAGE /

With regard Soviet agreement in principle to remove offensive weapons systems from Cuba, following is guidance for Embassy officers in discussions with host government officials and information media:

1. US welcomes Soviet agreement in principle as encouraging step.
2. Many problems remain to be resolved in implementing this agreement; therefore attitude cautious repeat cautious optimism should be adopted.
3. Agreement should not repeat not be characterized as Soviet capitulation.
4. The firm and united stand by the nations of the Hemisphere, acting collectively under the Rio Treaty has produced the latest encouraging results.
5. Khrushchev is dictating what will be done with respect to the weapons in Cuba, not Fidel Castro. Fidel has apparently not even been consulted. He is attempting to introduce new and unacceptable conditions in an effort to disrupt the progress achieved to date towards a peaceful solution.

ADA:RANurwitch:dr 10/28/62

Telegraphic transmission and classification removed by: SP-6 G-1116 J. Johnson

22A - Dr. Martin

USA - Mr. Sorenson

CONFIDENTIAL

REPRODUCTION FROM THIS
COPY IS PROHIBITED
UNLESS "UNCLASSIFIED".

DS-322

87 - 00 82 1 16

CONFIDENTIAL

~~RESTRICTED OFFICIAL USE~~

6. The Rio Treaty and all other collective arrangements of the Inter-American system remain in force.

7. The Hemisphere should remain alert to the continuing efforts of the Castro regime to intervene in the internal affairs of other nations, and be prepared to take whatever action, collectively or individually that may be required.

8.

We continue to look forward to day when Cuban people will be truly free, free from foreign domination, free to choose own leaders and systems. (cf President's October 23 statement).

RUSK

TRANSCRIBED PAGES FOLLOW

Department of State

CONFIDENTIAL

CIRCULAR

ACTION: ALL ARA DIPLOMATIC POSTS                      NIACT

JOINT STATE/USIA MESSAGE

With regard Soviet agreement in principal to remove offensive weapons systems from Cuba, following is guidance for Embassy officers in discussions with host government officials and information media:

1. US welcomes Soviet agreement in principle as encouraging step.
2. Many problems remain to be resolved in implementing this agreement, therefore attitude cautious repeat cautious optimism should be adopted.
3. Agreement should not repeat not be characterized as Soviet capitulation.
4. The firm and united stand by the nations of the Hemisphere, acting collectively under the Rio Treaty has produced the latest encouraging results.
5. Khrushchev is dictating what will be done with respect to the weapons in Cuba, not Fidel Castro. Fidel has apparently not even been consulted. He is attempting to introduce new and unacceptable conditions in an effort to disrupt the progress achieved to date toward a peaceful solution.

6. The Rio Treaty and all other collective arrangements of the Inter-American system remain in force.

7. The Hemisphere should remain alert to the continuing efforts of the Castro regime to intervene in the internal affairs of other nations, and be prepared to take whatever action, collectively or individually, that may be required.

8. [Excised]

We continue look forward to day when Cuban people will be truly free, free from foreign domination, free to choose our leaders and systems. (of President's October 23 statement).

RUSK